And Then They Came for Me: Remembering the World of Anne Frank

Touring October, 2015-May, 2016 | Suitable for grades 4-12

Back by popular demand! This unique theatrical experience combines interviews with Holocaust survivors Ed Silverberg and Eva Schloss with live actors recreating scenes from their lives during World War II. Part oral history, part dramatic action, part direct address, part remembrance, this play will help your students gain a new understanding of one of the darkest times in human history. Performance is 60-minutes, includes comprehensive study guide and talk-back, and will accommodate any number of students.

TOURING SPRING 2016

Grades: K-5

THE THREE LITTLE WOLVES AND THE BIG BAD PIG

Tours in schools:
March-May, 2016

A new musical based on the international best-seller of the same title by Eugene Trivizas, this classic tale has been modernized into a work as entertaining as it is profound. When it comes time for the three little wolves to go out into the world and build themselves a house, their mother warns them to beware the big bad pig. But the little wolves' increasingly sturdy dwellings are no match for the persistent porker, who has more up his sleeve than huffing and puffing. Performance is 55-minutes, includes comprehensive study guide and talk-back, and will accommodate any number of students.
