

Procedure for Filing a Title VI Complaint

Filing a Title VI Complaint

The complaint procedures apply to the beneficiaries of Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc.'s programs, activities, and services.

RIGHT TO FILE A COMPLAINT: Any person who believes they have been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, or national origin by Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. may file a Title VI complaint by completing and submitting the agency's Title VI Complaint Form. Title VI complaints must be received in writing within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory complaint.

HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT: Information on how to file a Title VI complaint is posted on our agency's website, and in public areas of our agency.

You may download the Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. Title VI Complaint Form at <https://jewishlouisville.org/notifying-the-public-of-rights-under-title-vi/> or request a copy by writing to:

Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc.
3600 Dutchmans Lane
Louisville, Kentucky 40205

Information on how to file a Title VI complaint may also be obtained by calling Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. at 520-459-0660.

You may file a signed, dated complaint no more than 180 days from the date of the alleged incident. The complaint should include:

- Your name, address and telephone number.
- Specific, detailed information (how, why and when) about the alleged act of discrimination.
- Any other relevant information, including the names of any persons, if known, the agency should contact for clarity of the allegations.

Please submit your complaint form to the Title VI Coordinator at:

Title VI Coordinator
Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc.
3600 Dutchmans Lane
Louisville, Kentucky 40205

COMPLAINT ACCEPTANCE: Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. will process complaints that are complete.

Once a completed Title VI Complaint Form is received, Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. will review it to determine if Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive an acknowledgement letter informing them whether or not the complaint will be investigated by Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc.

INVESTIGATIONS: Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. will generally complete an investigation within 90 days from receipt of a completed complaint form. If more information is needed to resolve the case, Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. may contact the complainant. Unless a longer period is specified by Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. the complainant will have ten (10) days from the date of the letter to send requested information to the Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. Coordinator assigned to the case.

If the requested information is not received within that timeframe, the case may be administratively closed. Also, a case may be administratively closed if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue the case, upon written notice, and if the Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. Executive Director approves.

LETTERS OF CLOSURE OR FINDING: After the Title VI Coordinator reviews the complaint, the Title VI Coordinator will issue one of two letters to the complainant: a closure letter or letter of finding (LOF).

- A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was not a Title VI violation and that the case will be closed.

- A Letter of Finding (LOF) summarizes the allegations and provides an explanation of the corrective action taken.

If the complainant disagrees with Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc.'s determination, the complainant may request reconsideration by submitting the request in writing to the Title VI Coordinator, and a copy to the TARC Executive Director, 1000 W Broadway, Louisville, KY 40203, within seven (7) days after the date of the letter of closure or letter of finding, stating with specificity the basis for the reconsideration. Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. will notify the complainant of the decision either to accept or reject the request for reconsideration within ten (10) days. In cases where reconsideration is granted, Jewish Community of Louisville, Inc. will issue a determination letter to the complainant upon completion of the reconsideration review.

A person may also file a complaint directly with the Federal Transit Administration, Office of Civil Rights, Attention: Complaint Team, East Building, 5th Floor – TCR, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE, Washington, DC 20590.
